

Program Educational Objectives

(Mechanical Engineering)

After four years, the graduates of the program will:

PEO-1: Achieve excellence in academia, industry or entrepreneurial activities while expanding their technical and managerial competency through lifelong learning.

PEO-2: Demonstrate ability to design and develop innovative and sustainable solutions for complex mechanical engineering problems to address local and global challenges.

PEO-3: Exhibit strong leadership skills dedicated to ethical values, productivity and sustainability.